APRIL 2015 / NISAN - IYAR 5775

President's Message

Dear Congregants and Friends,

April is upon us with its mild temperatures for the most part. This is the time of year we pine for in January and February. It is also time for Passover. However you are celebrating the holiday, I hope you enjoy marking such a significant event.

For me and the Board, it is time to think ahead to the annual meeting to be held on May 31. It sums up our year and looks ahead to the next. I would like you, as members of Temple House of Israel, to think seriously about how you want 2015-2016 to unfold. What classes or programs or events would you like to attend? Are there speakers you would like to hear or discussions we should bring to the temple? Please think and then tell me or another board member. With this information, we, along with the rabbi, can make plans for the next year of our congregational life. All of our names and various means of contact are in the back of this bulletin.

I want to thank you for paying your annual dues promptly. We are ahead of last year in collections, and the board appreciates your effort.

I would also like to welcome new members Diana and David Black, Nadia Webb and to Bonny Strassler who has made the transition from affiliate to full member. The more the merrier.

Rosalie Waterman, President THOI

From the Rabbi's Desk

Dear Temple House of Israel Congregants and Friends,

We are starting the coming month off with a bang! The evening of April 3rd is the start of Passover, which means that the day of April 3rd is the fast of the First Born. Passover continues until the 8th day on April 8th, Saturday, and will end that evening at sundown. If you wish to "sell" your chametz in advance of the holiday, please be in contact with me.

You may recall that at the end of February I attended a conference put on by Kavod v'Nichum. It was the 13th annual Chevrah Kadisha, and Cemetery Conference. It was a wonderful event; if you have any interest in any aspect of cemetery management, Bikkur Cholim or the work of the Chevrah Kadisha, I recommend you plan to attend. The next conference is scheduled for June 2016 in Boston.

There were four "tracks" at the conference: Traditional Taharah, Family Centered Taharah, Community Building, and Jewish Burial. Highlights included sessions and discussions of the transformational power of water, Taharah liturgy, Organ donation and autopsies, essence of Taharah, Taharah at Home, Green burials, Krovei Yisrael – ceremonies to honor non-Jews, Texas burial societies and congregations history, cremation and burial, interfaith sections in traditional cemeteries, sewing shrouds as a community building activity, documents we all need to have completed, Ebola and infection control for the Chevrah Kadisha, and Crypto-Jewish studies & Hispanic-Jewish relations. The conference was lively, interesting and informative, as well as fun, bringing together 80 amazing people from across North America. I recommend this conference to you highly.

In a related vein, I am now (as I write this) in the last week of the fifth semester-long course through the Gamliel Institute. The group of students who have made it this far are inspiring, and extraordinary people. The final course in the series will begin in two weeks. It is an opportunity to learn that is unprecedented. It consists of online classes as preparation, then a study mission that includes hands-on practica and studies in New York, Prague, Tsefat, and Jerusalem, followed by online classes on return. This is a once-in-a-lifetime course. I have been incredibly blessed to be able to participate and view this as a chance to bring back knowledge, skills, information and best practices from a wide variety of groups, individuals, and experts in many locales to enhance and improve what we do in our community. This also means that I will be away from April 20th to May 10th and may have limited email during that time – which has been planned for and included on the congregational calendar last June. Some of the highlights of this trip include: studying together with students at Yeshivot from all streams of Judaism, working with funeral homes, cemeteries and Chevrei Kadisha, meeting and studying with spiritual care providers, funeral directors, scholars and leading rabbis. One of the many highlights of this course includes a day-long conference on the sacred work of the Chevrah Kadisha at the end of life, in Jerusalem, including many Chevrei Kadisha group members and spiritual care providers from throughout Israel, with keynote speakers including Rabbis Adin Steinsaltz, Benjamin Lau, Yaakov Ruza and Shaul Farber, to name just a few. I will be sending more details in a separate mailing about the study mission and the work of the Gamliel Institute, the training arm of Kavod v'Nichum, which teaches these courses. I hope to write more about this trip after I return, and will welcome the opportunity to speak with you about it.

One of the highlights from the past month for me was the Community Awareness Shabbat when we had about 80 people attend our service. The service was a lively, fun and energetic event and it was a lovely evening. I heard many nice comments about how much people enjoyed it, and how welcoming they found the congregants at THOI. Kol Hakavod to all who were involved in putting together the evening, include those who participated in the service.

The Torah Parashiot for the coming two months are Tzav (Shabbat Hagadol), Pesach day 1, Pesach day 8, Shemini, Tazria-Metzora, Acharei Mot-Kedoshim, Emor, Behar-Bechukotai, Bamidvar (Erev Shavuot) and Naso. Rosh Chodesh Iyar is on April 19th and 20th and Rosh Chodesh Sivan is on May 19th.

As we move towards our holiday of Redemption and liberation from bondage, may we each find the strength we require, and the will to choose to do that which makes us free to serve G-d and others. Just as the Hebrews were redeemed for the purpose of serving G-d, so may we each find our highest purpose and fulfill it.

B'virkat Shalom,
Rabbi Joe Blair

Special Potluck Dinner Just for Fun

Come join us for a potluck dinner! April 24th at 6 P.M.

The Women's Group will sponsor a potluck dinner for temple members. All are invited for an informal and enjoyable Shabbat evening. After dinner, Sarah Grove-Humphries will lead us in some Shabbat songs. This dinner will be milchig - please bring vegetarian, dairy, or fish dishes. Let's have an informal evening to hang out, have some good conversation, and enjoy each other's cooking.

Women's Group

Congratulations to Women's Group president, Ellen Werther, on the marriage of her son on March 21, 2015, in Maui, Hawaii. A significant event in a significant place.

The Women's Group will be helping with set up for the temple seder on April 3. Set up will be briefly on both April 2 at 1 pm and April 3 at 3:30 pm just prior to the service. We have some helpers already, but call Rosalie if you would like to help also.

Our meeting this month is on April 19 at 2 pm at the temple. It will be a discussion of Rabbi Sue Elwell's Chapters of the Heart, a collection of essays written by Jewish women. These essays show how Judaism played a part in a time or an aspect of the writers' lives. Join us to listen, to ask questions, and to contribute opinions. If you haven't read the book, come and listen.

On Friday, April 24, the Women's Group will sponsor a dinner at the temple. The rabbi will be away so instead of a service, we will have a Shabbat meal together, focusing on food and enjoyment of each other's company. Details from Ruth, the event coordinator, are below the calendar on page 3.

Religious School

The snow days are over, and spring has sprung! Religious School bounced back from the snow days by celebrating with a post-Purim party on March 8th. Thank you so much to the many parent and teacher helpers, especially Jennifer Edwards, Ashley Renick, Gale Clemons, and Stephen Lucas! Also, thank you to Jessica Mintzer for her help during the event, The kids had a blast with lots of fun activities including a costume party and crafts including - making egg graggers, origami, balloon animals and balloon masks, decorating crowns and paper masks, a ring toss, and more. And of course, there was the delicious eating of Hamantaschen. I think it can be said, we all had a great time!

The kids are working hard on preparing for the Religious School Shabbat Service at Beth El on Saturday, April 18th. I hope everyone will join us for this event! Additionally, we will celebrate all of our new students with consecration during this service. Then there will be a Kiddush luncheon following the service. Please plan to be there to support our students.

Finally, many thanks to the Beth El congregation and Religious School families for supporting our teachers with a delicious dinner and a lovely Shabbat service on Friday, March 20th. The beautiful certificates and the warm welcome lets our teachers know how much you appreciate them, and in turn they are very proud to teach your students and be a part of the Religious School!

Wishing everyone a wonderful Pesach!

L'shalom,
Dara Hall, Principal

SHORTY

Three members of SHORTY, Madeline Hall, Hannah Daniel, and Jessica Mintzer went to Capital Camps in Morgantown, PA for a fun event (despite the rain). The Vent is one of many opportunities NFTY-MAR has for our kids to meet other Jewish kids and form a strong and supportive community.

Special Events

Commemorating
Holocaust

Film screening and discussion: Raise the Roof. March 29th 7:30 – 10:00 PM at the Stackhouse Theater, Elrod Commons on the campus of W&L in Lexington. The story of reconstructing the Gwozdziec synagogue including the work of some of the Lexington-area timber-framing community. See the attached flyer for the full information.
